

Santa Monica Welcomes the LA Marathon!

The Los Angeles Marathon is coming to Santa Monica on Sunday, March 21, 2010! The new "Stadium to the Sea" course, debuting this year, enters Santa Monica at San Vicente Boulevard and 26th Street. The course will continue west on San Vicente Boulevard and turn south on Ocean Avenue, heading for the finish line at Ocean Avenue and Santa Monica Boulevard! Following the race, all participants are welcome to enjoy the festivities planned in the parking lot north of the Santa Monica Pier.

Be aware that some street closures will be in effect in Santa Monica and throughout Los Angeles along the length of the course. For more information, check www.smgov.net/lamarathon as the race approaches!

This message may be forwarded to other Santa Monica residents or interested individuals.

Public notices such as this one from the Santa Monica Police Department can now be received by subscribing to the City's WIN (Web Information Network) service. The link to WIN is <http://www01.smgov.net/win/>

For more information about our community e-mail subscriber list, please contact us by e-mail: community.relations@smgov.net or, by telephone at (310) 458-8474.

To be removed from this e-mail list, you may simply reply to the sender and ask to be removed.

SANTA MONICA POLICE DEPARTMENT
Timothy J. Jackman, Chief of Police

Community Relations
333 Olympic Drive
Santa Monica, CA 90401
(310) 458-8474
(310) 576-1520 FAX
<http://santamonicapd.org>